Graduate Degree Scholarship Application

The GANA Educational Foundation BEC Division Graduate Scholarship is made possible by donations from the members of the Glass Association of North America's Building Envelope Contractors (BEC) Division. The Foundation was officially established by action of the GANA Board of Directors in May 2006.

Eligibility

1. Any individual either accepted or currently attending a graduate-level program in the fields of Architecture, Construction Management, Engineering, or Business.
2. The scholarship will be awarded to a student attending an accredited university.
3. Student must have a cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher, based upon a 4.00 scale.
4. Previous recipients of this scholarship are eligible to apply in any succeeding competition for this award provided that other requirements of eligibility are satisfied.

Application

1. Applications are to be submitted to the GANA Educational Foundation office for receipt by a date established by the Foundation that is no later than April 1 of the year of award.
2. Applications must include: (a) completed application form and (b) an essay of why the applicant is deserving of the scholarship. The Essay must be one-page, typed, and single spaced, stating why the student is deserving of the scholarship, relate how the student's education/experience could or will benefit the glass and fenestration industry and how the glass and fenestration industry could benefit the student.

In order to create a comprehensive essay, visit these websites for additional information: www.glasswebsite.com, www.glasseducation.com. Also, videos on how various glass products are produced may be found at www.glasswebsite.com/techcenter/videos.

Selection

1. One applicant may be selected each year to receive an award.
2. Selection recommendations will be made by a review committee designated by the GANA Educational Foundation and will be assisted by the BEC Division Executive Committee. The BEC review committee will be comprised of five judges: two contract glazing firm GANA members, two supplier GANA members and the GANA Technical Director.
3. Selection is based on the applicant's justification of the award, academic performance and standing, potential for development, leadership capability and potential/current benefit to the glass and fenestration industry.

Award(s)

1. The sum of the scholarship to be awarded will be $2,500.
2. Recipient(s) will be notified of their selection in June by the GANA Educational Foundation.
3. The award(s) will be deposited into the awardee's account with the financial aid office of the educational institute designated in his/her application. Scholarship funds must be used for tuition and/or book expenses.

Deadline: Applications must be received by April 1, 2010

ALL APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS MUST BE FULFILLED. INCOMPLETE APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.
